Building Resilience
5/23/24 5/23/24 11:00 AM 12:00 PM
As we continue in our ever changing and challenging world, the real goal of becoming resilient is more than simply bouncing back, but to instead bounce forward having gained greater resilience. It’s about becoming even better after having faced difficulties and significant mental toughness for the future. Resilience strengthens the ability to adapt to and persevere in hard times while continuing to function well both physically and mentally. This session shares findings on why being resilient is both personally and professionally beneficial and discusses 5 practical ways to become more resilient.

Robert Weinerman: Let’s Catch Up - An Updated Look at Taxes and Financial Aid for the 2024-2025 Aid Year
5/28/24 5/28/24 11:00 AM 1:00 PM
2024-2025 has been a taxing year (sorry for the pun!). We’ve all done our best to learn about the new FAFSA and FAFSA processing requirements, but there have been so many changes that some of the training I did this winter and spring has become outdated. This webinar will update the content that I presented in the fall and winter that has changed. In this webinar, we will look at the tax information that financial aid administrators need to understand in order to counsel students, review files, perform V1 verification, and resolve conflicting information. We will focus on changes that were announced late in the cycle, so that participants can have a new look at each process with accuracy and up to date information.

Establishing good money habits
5/29/24 5/29/24 10:00 AM 11:00 AM
While there is little we can do about the challenges facing the economy, there are slight changes you can make in your daily life to help bolster your financial future. In this webinar, we will look at practical ways to practice good money habits.

Mapping through Student Loan Repayment Plans
5/29/24 5/29/24 11:00 PM 1:00 PM
It’s common for student loan borrowers to experience sticker shock when they receive notice of their first monthly payment amount. For some, avoiding payments seems easier than asking for help—but avoiding their obligation can cost more money and lead to damaging consequences. The reality is borrowers are not stuck with the first monthly payment amount. Federal student loans have more options for repayment than any other type of debt. Attend this important session to help your borrowers map through student loan repayment.
